Dear Judge Patterson:

We are counsel to Third-Party Defendant [REDACTED] in the above-referenced action and write to request additional time to file a response to a third-party complaint recently filed by Third-Party Plaintiff Citibank, N.A. ("Citibank").

[REDACTED] respectfully requests an extension of time to respond to the third-party complaint until February 7, 2011. This is [REDACTED] second request for an extension to respond to the complaint. We believe this extension is consistent with the current time frame of the proceedings, as discussed in the December 7 conference, so there is no prejudice to any party.

[REDACTED] has obtained consent to this extension from counsel for the Greenbaum and Acosta Judgment Creditors, who have confirmed that they are agreeable to such extension on the condition that it be [REDACTED] final request for an extension to respond to the third-party complaint.

██████ does not agree to be bound by this condition, but notes that it does not currently intend to seek another such extension. Should ██████ seek to obtain another extension in the future, if it is unable to obtain the consent of the Judgment Creditors' Counsel and only if it is absolutely necessary, ██████ will move this Court to order an extension of the deadline for good cause shown.

Respectfully submitted,

/s/ Eric J. Snyder
